

Mirror

India / South Asia Collection

|                      |                                                                                        |
|----------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Accession Nr.:       | 1962  |
| Type:                | jade                                                                                   |
| Date of production:  | without date                                                                           |
| Place of production: | India                                                                                  |
| Materials:           | jade; precious stone; silver                                                           |
| Techniques:          | inlay                                                                                  |
| Dimensions:          | height: 14.5 cmwidth: 10 cm                                                        |

Octagonal sheet of jade stone, on the other side of which there is a mirror. Gilded silver frame with flower-like rubies in a gilded socket. On the reverse is engraved and gilded tree of life motif.

