

Dish fragment

India / South Asia Collection

Accession Nr.:	4216
Type:	vessel
Date of production:	IIIrd-IInd millennium before Christ Indus valley (Harappan) period
Place of production:	India
Materials:	earthenware
Techniques:	painted
Dimensions:	length: 7 cm width: 5.6 cm depth: 1.6 cm
Acquisition:	bequest of Zoltán Felvinczi Takács

It is a thick red burnt earthenware of approximately triangular shape with two parallel painted black stripes on the outside.

