

Vajratara

Mongolian Collection

Accession Nr.:	57.35.1
Type:	sculpture; metalwork; statuette
Date of production:	18th century
Place of production:	Mongolia
Materials:	copper
Techniques:	gilt
Dimensions:	height: 23.5 cm depth: 13 cm Tömeg: 3.1 kg width: 16.3 cm

Vajra Tara (Tib.: rdo rje 'jigs byed; Mong.: Vcir-Dar-a eke), who is one emanation of Yellow Tara depicted with four faces and eight hands. Each face has three eyes and her smile is terrifying. Her eight hands have the appropriate attributes (one is missing). She is seated on a lotus throne.

