

Dish fragment

India / South Asia Collection

Accession Nr.:	4988
Type:	vessel
Date of production:	III–II millennium BC Indus valley (Harappan) period
Place of production:	India
Materials:	earthenware
Techniques:	fired
Dimensions:	width: 4.5 cm diameter: 11.7 cm
Acquisition:	donation of Imre Schwaiger

It may have been a fragment of the sole of a larger vessel, which could have been made on a disc. Material: hard-burnt tile.

