

Six-panel black lacquer screen with auspicious symbols

Korean Collection

|                       |                                                                                              |
|-----------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Accession Nr.:        | 2000.105.1  |
| Type:                 | furniture; screen                                                                            |
| Date of production:   | Late 20th centuryRepublican period                                                       |
| Place of production:  | Korea                                                                                        |
| Materials/Techniques: | wood, lacquer, inlaid semi-precious stones, copper, gold leaf                                |
| Dimensions:           | height: 199 cmwidth: 50.6 cmx 6 itemspanelvastagság: 3.7 cm                      |

