

Round box

Chinese Collection

Accession Nr.:	50.285.1-2
Type:	lacquers
Date of production:	18th century Qing dynasty
Place of production:	China
Materials:	lacquer; wood
Techniques:	carved
Dimensions:	height: 2.6 cm diameter: 8.1 cm

Earliest pieces of Chinese carved lacquerware originate from the Song period. They are decorated with guri ornaments: the Japanese expression refers to objects with heart or geometric scroll motifs. Deep scroll motifs are carved with V-shaped edge in the thick lacquer.

