

Brush-washer bowl with double fish carving on the inside

Chinese Collection

| | |
|----------------------|--|
| Accession Nr.: | 3146  |
| Type: | vessel; object for daily use; jade |
| Date of production: | 18th century Qing dynasty |
| Place of production: | China |
| Materials: | nephrite |
| Techniques: | carved; engraved |
| Dimensions: | height: 4 cm width: 9 cm length: 13.5 cm |
| Acquisition: | collection of Ferenc Hopp |

Objects on Chinese scholars' desks are at once functional products of craftsmanship and pieces representing the ideals of Confucianist erudition. Everyday objects include teacups or the accessories of writing like a brush-washer.

