

Sake cup with river and chrysanthemum motif

Japanese Collection

|                       |                                                                                        |
|-----------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Accession Nr.:        | 1882  |
| Type:                 | vessel; object for daily use; lacquers                                                 |
| Date of production:   | early 19th centuryEdo (Tokugawa) period                                            |
| Place of production:  | Japan                                                                                  |
| Materials/Techniques: | wood, lacquer (maki-e)                                                                 |
| Dimensions:           | height 2.6 cmdiameter 9.9 cm                                                       |
| Acquisition:          | collection of Ferenc Hopp                                                              |

Unsigned.

