

Carving: deer resting on a rock with fungus (lingzhi) in his mouth

Chinese Collection

|                      |                                                                                        |
|----------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Accession Nr.:       | 1084  |
| Type:                | statuette; stone carving                                                               |
| Date of production:  | 19th centuryQing dynasty                                                           |
| Place of production: | China                                                                                  |
| Materials:           | semi-precious stone                                                                    |
| Techniques:          | carved                                                                                 |
| Dimensions:          | length: 9.1 cm                                                                         |
| Acquisition:         | collection of Ferenc Hopp                                                              |

Chalcedony with carnel spots

