

Snuff bottle with figural design

Chinese Collection

Accession Nr.:	4324
Type:	object for daily use; snuff bottle; pottery
Date of production:	19th century Qing dynasty
Place of production:	Jiangxi province, China
Marks:	flower with leaves in underglaze blue and red paint
Materials:	porcelain
Techniques:	underglaze blue and red
Dimensions:	height: 8.1 cm diameter (base): 3.3 cm

The body of the bottle is tall and cylindrical, and has a slightly narrowing base, a short, narrow neck and a thick mouth rim. On the basis of its shape and technology, the bottle can be dated to the first half of the 19th century.

