

Snuff bottle decorated with the figures of teachers and boys reading on a terrace

Chinese Collection

Accession Nr.:	50.403.1-2
Type:	object for daily use; snuff bottle; pottery
Date of production:	19th century Qing dynasty
Place of production:	Jiangxi province, China
Materials:	brass; porcelain; stone
Techniques:	printed
Dimensions:	height: 8.1 cm diameter (base): 2.4 cm

The body of the bottle is tall and cylindrical, and has a broad, slightly narrowing base, a short neck and a thick mouth rim. On the basis of the characteristics and technology, the item can be dated to the first half of the 19th century.

