

Devata head, from the Maya Cave in Kizil

Chinese Collection

Accession Nr.:	7743
Type:	religious or cult object; fragment of a fresco
Date of production:	7th century
Place of production:	Xinjiang, China
Materials:	clay; glue
Techniques:	Painted
Dimensions:	height: 16 cm width: 12 cm gipszkeretben: height: 19.5 cm width: 19.5 cm

Fragment of a Buddhist cave temple painting from Kizil. It was given as a gift to Rafael Zichy and his wife from Albert von Le Coq

