

Sauce boat with landscape decoration

Chinese Collection

Accession Nr.: 51.177.1

Type: vessel; object for daily use; pottery

Date of production: Second quarter of 17th century, cca. 1640
Ming dynasty

Place of production: Jiangxi province, China

Materials: porcelain

Techniques: underglaze blue

Dimensions: height: 11 cm width: 17.5 cm
diameter (base): 6.2 cm

This is a sauce boat with a handle and a lip, produced for export to the West. Presumably, it was made in the Chongzhen reign (1628–1644) and belonged to a large table set. Above the base, there are four swastikas.

